ORDERED that the Debtor shall be authorized to schedule, in cooperation with the Court, periodic omnibus hearings at which motions, pleadings, applications, and other requests for relief shall be heard. If omnibus hearings are scheduled, the following guidelines shall apply:

(a) The Court shall set separate hearings for claim objections and for pre-trial conferences and trials in connection with adversary proceedings. Initial pre-trial conferences in connection with adversary proceedings shall be scheduled on the next available hearing date that is at least forty-five days after the filing of the complaint.

(b) If a document is filed by a non-Debtor party that purports to set a hearing date inconsistent with the Procedures herein, the hearing shall be scheduled, without the

(c) If a movant or applicant other than the Debtor determines that a motion, pleading, application, or other request requires emergency or expedited relief, the movant or applicant shall telephonically contact the Debtor's attorneys requesting that the motion or application be considered on an expedited basis. If the Debtor disagrees with the movant's or applicant's determination regarding the emergency or expedited nature of the relief requested, the movant or applicant shall: (i) inform the Court of the disagreement via telephone and (ii) arrange thereafter for a chambers conference, telephonic or in-person, to be held among the Court, the Debtor's attorneys, and the movant or applicant to discuss the disagreement. ORDERED that motions, pleadings, applications, and other requests for relief (other than those as set forth below) shall not be considered by the Court unless filed and served in accordance with these Procedures at least twenty calendar days before the scheduled hearing date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006, if the parties served with a motion, pleading, application, or other requests for relief include parties being served by U.S. mail, a hearing may not be scheduled before twenty-three calendar days from the date of service; and it is further

ORDERED that nothing in these Procedures shall prejudice the right of any party to move the Court to request an enlargement or reduction of any time period under Bankruptcy Rules 6006(b) and 9006(c); and it is further

ORDERED that, if a motion, pleading, application, or other request for relief seeks relief pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a), the relevant hearing shall be set after the passage of the time period set forth therein; provided, however, that, consistent with Bankruptcy Rule 9006, if service is by U.S. mail, a hearing shall not be scheduled before twenty-three calendar days from the date of service; and it is further

ORDERED that the deadline to file an objection to any motion, pleading, application, or other request for relief shall be (i) at least five calendar days before the applicable hearing date or (ii) any date otherwise ordered by the Court. ORDERED that, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a reply to an objection (at the sole discretion of Debtor) shall be filed with the Court and served in accordance with these Procedures on or before 12:00 noon prevailing Eastern Time on the day that is at least two calendar days before the date of a hearing; and it is further for the entity who filed the motion, pleading, application, or other request for relief: (i) files a declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 indicating that no objection has been filed or served in accordance with these Procedures; (ii) serves the declaration by facsimile or electronic mail upon the attorneys for the Debtor one business day before submission thereof to the Court; and (iii) delivers by U.S. mail, electronic mail or hand or overnight delivery, a package to the Court including (a) the declaration described in subsection (i) above, and (b) an electronic copy of the order granting the relief requested in the applicable motion, pleading, application, or other request for relief (collectively, the “Presentment Package”). Upon receipt of the Presentment Package, the Court may grant the relief requested in the motion, pleading, application, or other request for relief without further submission, hearing, or request. If the Court does not grant the relief, (i) the motion, pleading, application, or other request for relief will be considered by the Court at the hearing date set in accordance with the provisions of this order and (ii) the decision shall not constitute an extension of the objection deadline related thereto, unless otherwise agreed between the Debtors and the party seeking relief; and it is further ORDERED that a “Notice of Hearing” shall be affixed to all motions, pleadings, applications, and other requests for relief and shall include the following: (i) the title of the motion, pleading, application, or other request for relief; (ii) the parties upon whom any objection to the motion, pleading, application, or other request for relief is required to be served; (iii) the date and time of the applicable objection deadline; (iv) the date of the hearing at which the motion, pleading, application, or other request for relief shall be considered by the Court; and (v) a statement that the relief requested may be granted without a hearing if no objection is timely filed and served in accordance with these Procedures. The applicable objection deadline and hearing date shall also appear in the upper right corner of the first page of the Notice of Hearing; and it is further

ORDERED that, by 12:00 noon on the day prior to each hearing day, the Debtor's counsel shall provide to the Court, counsel for any statutory committee appointed, counsel to the Debtor's postpetition lenders, any parties-in-interest with matters before the Court that day, and the U.S. Trustee a proposed agenda with regard to the matters which are or were to be heard on such hearing day; and it is further ORDERED that, in the event a matter is properly noticed for hearing and the parties reach agreement on a settlement of the dispute prior to the final hearing, the parties may announce the settlement at the scheduled hearing on the hearing day. In the event the Court determines that the notice of the dispute and the hearing is adequate notice of the effects of the settlement (i.e., that the terms of the settlement are not materially different from what parties-in-interest could have expected if the dispute were fully litigated such that cause is deemed to be found under FRBP 2002(a)(3)), the Court may approve the settlement at the hearing without further notice of the terms of the settlement. In the event the Court determines that additional or supplemental notice is required, the Debtor shall serve such notice in accordance with the procedures set forth herein and a hearing to consider such settlement shall be on the next hearing day deemed appropriate by the Court; and it is further

ORDERED that, notwithstanding anything contained herein, motions for relief from the automatic stay filed pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code shall be noticed for consideration on the Omnibus Hearing date that is at least twenty-five days after the motion is filed and notice is served upon the Debtors. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the objection deadline shall be five calendar days before the scheduled hearing; and it is further

ORDERED that, notwithstanding the provisions of section 362(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, if a scheduled motion with respect to a request for relief under section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is adjourned upon the Debtor's consent and the moving party to a date that is on or after the thirtieth day after the moving party's request for relief was made, the moving party shall be deemed to have consented to the continuation of the automatic stay in effect pending the conclusion of, or as a result of, a final hearing and determination under section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and shall be deemed to have waived its right to assert the termination of the automatic stay under section 362(e) of the Bankruptcy Code; and it is further

ORDERED that the Debtor may amend the Procedures from time to time throughout these chapter 11 cases and shall present such amendments to the Court by motion in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Order; and it is further

ORDERED that notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion; and it is further ORDERED that the requirement pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(b) that the Debtors file a memorandum of law in support of the Motion is hereby waived.
